

A warm welcome to all visitors and persons seeking a relationship with a faith community. How do we define “visitors and persons seeking faith”? Just turn to the back of this bulletin for more details. At Bethany United Church we remain committed to the health and safety of our community of faith.

We remind all individuals to wash or sanitize hands upon arrival when visiting our sacred space.

If unwell, please be mindful of your neighbour.

*Today's bulletin is loving memory of wife,
Grace Veino and daughter, Helen Peill deeply missed by Ed & family.*

PLEASE NOTE! WORK HOURS FOR TINA GASCON, FINANCE OFFICER - MONDAYS, 10am-3pm, or by appointment: finances@bethanyunitedchurch.ca or 902-455-0521, x. 225.

Acknowledgement of Territory

Ann Bradley

Bethany United Church as a community of faith recognize and acknowledge that colonialism and oppression has been committed by the church, its antecedent denominations and is present today. We acknowledge that the stories of the past, the present and future people from Mi'kma'ki across this unceded territory hold a diverse spiritual belief, history, and way of life. We are called to hear the truth and work towards reconciliation. To live out apologies for the reality and irrevocable harm these communities have suffered. There is much work to be done repairing these relationships. We seek a healing relationship with the Mi'kmaq people, one based in the original intent of peace and friendship.

Lighting of the Christ Candle

Ann Bradley

We light this candle as a symbol of the light of Christ, which cannot be held back by distance, which shines in each one of us, no matter where we are.

One: In our time of worship, may we be inspired by God's wisdom.

Benediction

One: No one has ever seen God. But, if an angel appears and tells you to rise and go down a desert road, do not be afraid. Though barren, the desert is the place of revelation. As you pass through, someone will draw near. It may be the risen Christ, disguised as a weary stranger. Behold the face of your God, and offer the stranger your water.

Many: Amen

Prayer (sung by all)

The time has come, O God, for us to leave this place.

Guide us and protect us and lead us in Thy grace.

Wherever life may take us, as we go our separate ways,

Help us share with others, the things we’ve shared today.

May the peace of God the Father, and the love of Christ His Son,

Guide us in the days ahead and shelter us each one.

May the blessings of the Spirit, fill us from within,

Protect us and return us, to this fellowship once again.

Music for Going Forth: In Thee Alone, O Christ

God's Love Is Wider

A special welcome to those who are single, married, divorced, widowed, straight, gay, confused, well-heeled or down heeled; wailing babies, excited toddlers, questioning children, adults with all the answers; to those strong singers or silent hummers; those “just browsing”, just woken up, or just out of prison; those who are more Christian than the Moderator of the United Church of Canada or haven't been to church since Christmas years ago; those over 60 but not grown up yet and teens that are growing up way too fast; those doting moms, hockey dads, starving artists, tree-huggers, latte-sippers, vegetarians, junk-food eaters; those who are in recovery or still addicted; those with problems, down in the dumps, or don't like organized religion; those who think the world is flat, work too hard, don't work, can't spell, or are here with their loved one who is visiting and wanted to come back to Bethany one more time; those who are inked, pierced, both or neither; those who can use prayer right now, had religion shoved down their throat as kids; or just got stuck at the Armdale Rotary and wound up here. A “visitor or person seeking faith” can be a pilgrim, tourist, seekers, doubters ... and YOU!

(Adapted from a message shared by Coventry Cathedral, England and Fort Massey United Church, Canada)

Thank you, Joan Craig, for passing along this definition to Kevin.
